DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-2, drawn to a clustering means, classified in class 428, subclass 43.
 - II. Claim 3, drawn to a method of making a product, classified in class 156, subclass 247.
 - III. Claims 4-6, drawn to a method of using the product, classified in class 156, subclass 290.
 - IV. Claim 7, drawn to a multi-ply label, classified in class 428, subclass 40.1.
 - V. Claim 8, drawn to a method of making a multi-ply label, classified in class 156, subclass 250.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group II and Group I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product can be made by a materially different process such as attaching discrete tear strip only as the second layer, thereby obviating the step of removing residual parts of the second layer.

Art Unit: 1772

3. Inventions Group I and Group III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used in a materially different process such as a tear strip for accessing a multi-layered label..

4. Inventions Group II and Group III are related as process of making and process of using the product. The process of making the product can be used with a materially different process such as forming a access into a multi-layered label, instead of joining two adjacent items.

5. Inventions Group V and Group IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product can be made by a materially different process such as providing pre-formed first layer and second layer patterns, thereby obviating the cutting step.

6. Inventions Groups I-III and Groups IV-V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are a clustering means and a multi-layered label which are distinct and have different functions.

Art Unit: 1772

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. A telephone call was made to Mark S. Cohen on July 15, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
